

MEMBERSHIP AND SUPPORTER CLUBS

At the end of the 2016-17 season, City's entire men's team decided to surprise an army of local fans in their homes, workplaces and schools across the city to show the Club's supporters that we are #nothingwithoutyou.

Vincent Kompany had tea with the Club's oldest Seasoncard holder, 101-year-old Vera Cohen, and David Silva, Kevin De Bruyne, Nolito and Angus Gunn delivered a P.E. lesson to kids at Divine Mercy Primary School, located on the site of City's previous stadium, Maine Road.

40 Supporters Clubs were awarded special commemorative plaques, presented by former players including Tony Book, Mike Summerbee and Paul Dickov, based on the length of time they have been operating. Clubs from Denton, Manchester to Denver, Colorado received the plaques, with the oldest being Brooks Bar, founded in 1949.

Thousands of Supporters Club members in Indonesia, Brazil, Vietnam and China attended new Club-coordinated matchday viewing parties. In Rio De Janeiro, former City player Elano attended the event, which was live-streamed on ESPN Brazil.

Almost 400,000 City fans took part in the Cityzens Giving campaign, voting to decide how funds were split between six international community programmes. To date, the campaign has provided £1.5 million funding to support delivery and training of football-based community projects in 12 cities on six continents.
