Manchester City was the only sports company recognised in the 'Best Workplaces (Large)' category by the Great Place to Work Institute in its 2017 report, ranking in 25th place, four positions higher than the previous year.

94% of City staff said they were proud to tell others that they work at the Club and 82% felt this was a 'great place to work.' The results showed an 88% favourable response regarding Manchester City's approach to equality and diversity. The Club also performed higher than many of the world's best workplaces in relation to statements around CSR activity and unique perks and benefits for staff.

A new wellness scheme, 'Be City', was introduced, offering staff a number of new initiatives including the provision of yoga sessions, a weekly fitness bootcamp and free healthy food at breakfast and lunch. In addition, the Club held a series of special events including matchday screenings for the men's team, women's team and EDS games with expert half-time talks. External speakers were welcomed to City Football Academy for International Women's Day, and to help celebrate the history of the Club. Staff were also granted exclusive first access to The Tunnel Club, our latest hospitality offering, to sample the food and service. Their feedback was taken into account in the official development plans.

Eight staff were awarded the 'Captain's Club' award, a monthly award given for high achievement and presented by team captains Vincent Kompany and Steph Houghton.

Four staff received their long service award having reached the milestone 20-year service. As at the end of June 2017, 48 staff have been with Manchester City for between 10 and 19 years, and 13 staff for more than 20 years.
